THE VINEYARD

78 acres of uniquely contoured, loess-derived, Laurelwood soil. Located on a southwest-facing slope in Oregon's Chehalem Mountains, this special place is the heart and soul of our wines. Our Pinot noir blocks are comprised of clones 777, 667, 114, 115, Wadenswil, and Pommard, grafted to Riparia Gloire and 3309 rootstocks.

THE VINTAGE

2015 began with a record early budbreak on March 22nd. Warm and dry conditions persisted through August. Although ripening was shifted to the warmest part of the year, early vineyard activities, tempered these conditions. A cool-down during the last week of ripening further contributed to the formation of this ripe, yet extremely expressive wine.
